Ernata Koliqi

JUNIOR FRONT-END DEVELOPER AND UI/UX Designer

I am Ernata, a creative, detail-driven front-end developer and UI/UX designer with a background spanning design, development, and marketing. I focus on bridging visual design and functional code, designing interfaces in Figma and building them into real, working websites, increasingly with AI-assisted development workflows.

Experience

2025-Ongoing

Cacttus Education

Front-end Developer and Marketing Assistant

- Designing and building the new official Cacttus Education website. One of the most prestige high study institutes in Kosovo for Website and Mobile Development. Created the visual design in Figma Make, then translated it into a production front end with React, TypeScript, and Tailwind CSS.
- Used Claude AI throughout development, building custom coding agents to support coding and debugging and to keep learning the codebase while building it.
- Designed high-quality visual content for digital campaigns using Canva and Figma.

2026

Kosova Live

UI/UX Designer

- Selected as lead UI/UX designer among top students of Cacttus Education, to oversee the visual identity and user experience for the KosovaLive news portal.
- Directing design coordination between development teams to ensure seamless transition from prototypes to a custom-built platform.
- Designing high-fidelity, interactive prototypes in Figma with a focus on clean, realistic, and professional aesthetics.

2019 - 2026

Freelancer

Content Creator (Multiple brands)

- Created photo and video content for TikTok and Instagram for well-known Kosovo brands, developing concepts aligned with each brand's target audience.
- Managed the full production cycle: planning, filming, editing, and delivery, building a strong eye for user experience and what audiences want and need to see.
- Brands: Prishtina Mall, Gorenje, Ndezu Gym, Wolt Kosova

2021-2022

Klan Kosova

Journalist

- Produced TV stories for Ora 7 highlighting young changemakers.
- Delivered radio news and sports segments.
- Managed website posts for the show.
